POLO PLAYER WEDS HANDSOME HEIRESS

Devereaux Milburn Leads Miss Nancy Gordon Steele to the Altar.

By International News Service.
WESTBURY, L. I., Nov. 2.—Miss Nancy Gordon Steele, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steele, and Devereaux Milburn, the polo player, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Milburn, were married today in the Church of the Advent.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ernest Stires of St. Thomas church, Manhattan, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Richard D. Howe, rector of the Church of the Advent.

The maid of honor was Miss Katherine Steele, sister of the bride.
Following the ceremony there was a reception and breakfast at Sunridge hall, the Steele home at Westbury.

The bride received a number of magnificent wedding gifts, among them being a diamond harpin from her uncle, Edward Stotesbury; a dozen silver fruit plates from Foxhall Keene; a diamond brooch from Orme Wilson Jr.; a silver tea tray from Clarence Mackay and a silver luncheon basket from Lady Cecil Smith. The bride's father presented her with an annuity of $10,000 and gave her $400,000 outright.

Traverses Unknown Wilds of Amazon Region and Lives on Flesh of Monkeys.

Special Cable to The Tribune.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—Dr. Hamilton Rice, the American surgeon and traveler, has just arrived in London, after twenty-one months' exploration in southeast Colombia and northwest Brazil, where he traversed about 100,000 square miles of almost unknown territory.

During his travels Dr. Rice was attacked with poisonous ulcers and compelled to operate by candlelight, injecting cocaine and cutting his leg to the bone. The operation took two hours, and although this occurred nine months ago, the wounds are still unhealed.
"All of us," continued the explorer, "were practically starving, and we were reduced to one meal of monkey per day. Continuous thunderstorms made our retreat a perfect nightmare.
Presently the rain stopped and myriads of ants, bees and mosquitoes came out and further tortured us."

In one region Dr. Rice found a race of very light-colored Indians, "by no means white, but much paler than the ordinary Amazon tribes." These are known as Andoque. Their villages are shunned by their neighbors.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette.

Our confidence that TUXEDO will delight everyone is based on the solidest, sanest of reasons—it is absolutely different from all other tobaccos. That isn't just an opinion, it's a fact.

TUXEDO is made from the very best BURLEY leaf Kentucky grows. After this leaf is ripened, cured and aged until it is mild, mellow and fragrant, we go a step further.

That step is the original "Tuxedo Process" —known only to ourselves—and does two things.
It removes absolutely every trace of sting and bite, and develops a certain extra delicacy of fragrance which the smoker and those about him notice with equal pleasure.

SHADOWS SUPERIOR TO GET VENGEANCE

Special Cable to The Tribune.
PARIS, Nov. 2.—M. Calchas, the famous French detective, whose sudden death occurred a few days ago, was noted for his skill as a "shadower." Having quarreled for administrative reasons with M. Lepine during the latter's reign at the prefecture, he threatened to have his vengeance.

"It's no use trying to kill me," said the prefect genially, "I am too well looked after for that."
"I've a much better and less obvious plan than that," retorted the detective.
"Just wait and see."
A week later M. Calchas appeared in the prefect's office and presented an outrageous document. It was a minute record of M. Lepine's doings day by day, hour by hour, almost minute by minute, since their last interview. It was a foretaste of the bookkeeping of the recording angel, and it was with rather a wan smile that the chief perused it. Satisfied with his characteristic vengeance, the detective assured M.

Lepine that the "dossier" for that week would not be given to the world.
